This Lord's Day

This Lord's Day morning and evening, we welcome Pastor Mark Raines to our pulpit. Pastor Raines grew up in Norfolk, England, and after studying Humanities at Manchester went to work in local government. In 2000 he felt a call to pastoral ministry and spent two years at London Theological Seminary before moving to Grand Rapids to complete a Master of Divinity degree at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary. He has been married to Abigail (from the Philippines) since 2003. They have two children and together have served churches in London, South Africa, Michigan and East Haven, Connecticut where he has pastored since 2014.
